Supported by LMF Summary

Hopefully I have covered everything in this presentation, for you to feel confident in letting us support the VBOA to make your National day a success for 2017 and beyond.

Just to clarify

- There will be no compromise of revenue to the VBOA
- The amount of work that the VBOA members do for the National Day will be greatly REDUCED.
- The site offers room for expansion for future National day events.
- Market Harborough is a beautiful market town, and is a finalist in The Great British High Street Competition. It offers all the amenities you would expect from a large market town, and is also a fantastic back drop for a successful VBOA National day for 2017 and future VBOA National days.

Thank you!!
